Krewe of Leaders Seeking Community Volunteers To Honor as part of Royal Court

Oviedo/Winter Springs, Fla. – October 4, 2010- Central Florida-based Krewe of Leaders is accepting nominations for volunteers in the community for its 2011 Royal Court of Leaders. These small town heroes may not be well known in the community, but Krewe of Leaders (KOL) is working to change that perception and promote economic development in the area.

KOL is honoring these select volunteers as the Royal Court of Leaders at its annual Mardi Gras events in spring 2011, giving the public a chance to get to know the leaders in their community.

Nominations for Royal Court can be submitted at the KOL website (www.kreweofleaders.com) by December 1, 2010. There will be 14 candidates (7 men, 7 women) chosen by December 15, 2010, as the Dukes and Duchesses of the Court. These honored volunteers will be presented on February 17, 2011, at the Oviedo-Winter Springs Regional Chamber of Commerce luncheon.

“The 2nd Annual Mardi Gras Festival attracted over 10,000 people last February,” said KOL President and Founder Mary Alice Wilder. “We hope that our business community will nominate outstanding individuals dedicated to community service to be a part of our Royal Court in 2011.”
